Teaching

Courses at Groningen University

Spring 2022

Language Acquisition in the Linguistics Program (BA, 1st year).

Dutch Language Acquisition in the Dutch Language and Culture Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on acquisition, design of the exam, guiding students in writing their own research proposal.

Onderzoeksatelier (Research studio) in the Dutch Language and Culture Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: In close collaboration with a small group of students, designing and conducting a joint study in linguistics. Guiding them towards the end result: A paper and presentation.

Afstudeerdossier (Graduation Dossier) in Semantics and Pragmatics in the Linguistics Program (BA, 3rd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on core topics in Semantics and Pragmatics. Guiding students in carrying out their own graduation project.

Language Specific 2: Dutch in the European Languages and Cultures Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Designing a course on Dutch dialects and its influence on society for second language learners of Dutch. Teaching the course and guiding them towards the final essay (proficiency level: C1).

The Nature/Nurture debate in the Honours Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on the Nature/Nurture debate in linguistics; arranging for guest speakers; guiding students in a presentation and paper.

Fall 2021

Semantics in the Linguistics Program (BA, 1st year) and the Dutch Language and Culture Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on semantics, design of the exam.

Meaning and Use in the English Language and Culture Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Lecture recordings on semantics and pragmatics, weekly Q&As, design of the exam.

Spring 2021

Language Acquisition in the Linguistics Program (BA, 1st year).

Dutch Language Acquisition in the Dutch Language and Culture Program (BA, 2nd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on acquisition for first and second year BA students with a focus on Dutch first language acquisition, design of the exam, guiding students in writing their own research proposal.

Afstudeerdossier (Graduation Dossier) in Semantics and Pragmatics in the Linguistics Program (BA, 3rd year).

Responsibilities: Weekly lectures on core topics in Semantics and Pragmatics for third year BA students. Guiding students in carrying out their own graduation project.

Courses at the University of Maryland

Spring 2019

Topics in Syntax: Expressing Possibilities and Necessities across Languages and Development, University of Maryland.

Responsibilities: Design of a class introducing current thinking about modality, cross-linguistic patterns, and its acquisition, 1.15 hour lectures twice a week, grading, design of a final research project to be carried out individually by the students.

Summer 2018

A seven-day course on truth-conditional compositional semantics in the South-Caucasian Chalk Circle-2 Summer School, Ilia State University, Tbilisi, Georgia.

Responsibilities: Design of the class, seven 1.45 hour lectures on semantics & pragmatics.

Spring 2018

TA for Prof. Alexander Williams in LING410: Meaning and Grammar, University of Maryland.

Responsibilities: Grading, office hours.

Fall 2017

TA for Prof. Tonia Bleam in LING311: Syntax I, University of Maryland.

Responsibilities: Grading, office hours, guest lecture on modals - raising or control?

Fall 2016

TA for Prof. Margaret Antonisse in LING200: Introductory Linguistics, University of Maryland.

Responsibilities: Grading, office hours.

Course at Utrecht University

- Fall 2012 Schrijven en Presenteren (Writing and Presenting) in the Department of Language and Culture Studies, Utrecht University (1st year, BA).
Responsibilities: Lectures once a week on academic writing and presenting, guiding students and providing feedback on their developing presentation and writing skills, grading.
- Mentoring
2017-2019 Supervisor of four undergraduate Research Assistants (RAs) in the project 'Acquiring the language of possibility'.
Responsibilities: Weekly meetings to assign tasks and discuss progress; providing an introduction to the research questions and linking these to the specific assignments for the RAs; providing feedback to the work handed in; guidance towards a presentation of their work by the RAs themselves at the end of the year.
- Professional experience
- 2021 Participant in the workshop 'Language Development, Diagnosis and Assessment in School Ages (6-16): Next Steps in Research and Practice', Lorentz Center, Leiden.
- 2021 Member of the Semantics and Cognition Research Group and the Language Acquisition Lab at Groningen University.
- 2016-2020 Member of the research group 'Acquiring the language of possibility' at the University of Maryland.
Responsibilities: Organizing weekly meetings to discuss papers and ongoing research; presenting ongoing research; supervision of four undergraduate RAs (see above); inviting guest speakers and organizing a small-scale conference.
- Spring 2019 Leader of the Philosophy and Linguistics reading group (PHLing) at the University of Maryland.
Responsibilities: Organizing bi-weekly meetings to discuss papers relevant to linguists and philosophers; organizing conferences.
- 2017 Member of the organizing committee for Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT), University of Maryland, College Park MD.
Responsibilities: Inviting speakers, arranging for the logistics.
- 2016 Member of the organizing committee for Mayfest/the third Philosophy and Linguistics conference: Context.
Responsibilities: Inviting speakers, arranging for the logistics.

- 2012-2013 Member of the Curriculum Committee of the department of Linguistics at Utrecht University.
Responsibilities: Attending monthly meetings in which student's concerns are discussed; discussing changes to the Research Master's curriculum.
- 2009-2011 Editor of Metaal, educational journal of the department of Dutch Language and Culture at Leiden University.
Responsibilities: Arranging for interviews with people relevant to the field of Dutch language; writing articles.

Language proficiency

Dutch (native), English (fluent), German (reading), Georgian (conducted research on).

Fieldwork

- Summer 2018, Summer 2017 Fieldwork in Tbilisi, Georgia on Georgian modals and negation.
- Fall 2016, Spring 2017 Fieldwork on Georgian within the class 'Field Methods', led by Prof. Maria Polinsky & Prof. Omer Preminger.
